

NUKU ORA TĀKARO Our people and whānau at the heart of tākaro ‘Kia kawea tātou e te tākaro’ - Let us be taken by the spirit of play
Honouring Te Tiriti o Waitangi
	Understand our Community	Working in partnership	Learn as we go	Enable leadership
Reflection	Leadership	Insights	Practice	People	Innovation
To protect, preserve and promote the right for all tamariki, rangatahi and whānau in the Wellington region to a life full of tākaro in their own way.	Acknowledge and honouring Te Tiriti o Waitangi. We will advocate and influence change for tākaro across the Wellington Region that is both inclusive and equitable for all	Capture the many voices to grow the social and cultural. benefits, such as an improvement in mental and physical health, and stronger connections to the physical environment, cultural revitalisation, spaces or places our region choose to tākaro in.	Tākaro is included and considered across a variety of levels through policy systems and processes to guide development and growth of tākaro outcomes across our region.	Foster whanaungatanga through collaborative action maximising tākaro opportunities to grow capability and improve equitable tākaro outcomes across the Wellington region.	Promote, support, and establish innovative tākaro development prototypes as opportunities across the Wellington Region

Let imagination be our guide by...	Indigenising our tākaro for the future by...	Allow nature to play beside you by...	Welcoming tamariki-centric play by...	Explore how community can re-shape experiences by...	Aspirations through Tākaro by...
Tamariki are our enduring innovators, and the experts in their tākaro. We are an ally to young voices. Gathering their insights will advocate and support opportunities for greater access to tākaro their way.	Values and customs from a Te Ao Māori approach to be included and celebrated through tākaro. Te Ao Māori approach will teach us about the many places we can draw learnings from. Sharing of stories and the passion mana whenua have for their taonga through tākaro.	Promoting, advocating, and supporting for Investing time in natural resourced based play spaces and places	Tamariki and rangatahi voice gathered before developing places everywhere for all tamariki to explore and experiment tākaro.	Tākaro is integrated and or embedded in our planning that has the potential to positively impact with the community on shared wellbeing and behaviour change outcomes	Collaborative mapping various activities and programmes that currently exist in each area to better identify gaps and provision.
Nuku Ora commitment...	Nuku Ora commitment...	Nuku Ora commitment...	Nuku Ora commitment...	Nuku Ora commitment...	Nuku Ora commitment...
Promote and advocate Why Tākaro is important to our Tamariki and to hear from the power of voice that will assist in making changes that allows tamariki to experience fun, joy and laughter in a way that is important to them. Hear how tākaro is important	Promoting, advocating, supporting, and celebrating tākaro and its value for our Māori people through a mātauranga Māori lens will support and enhance our mokopuna and tamariki to preserve their culture, be adventurous through te taiao, be joyful, relax and lift or soothe their wairua and to have an important place in Māori culture with a tradition rich in ancient narrative creating a unique, contemporary form of cultural journey linked through tākaro.	Promoting, advocating, and supporting tamariki, rangatahi and whānau the spaces and places to have tākaro time in their day. Promoting, advocating, and supporting our people to be kaitiaki of our natural environments and enabling tākaro their way	Support, advocate and promote in enabling accessible play everywhere, including opportunities everywhere to ‘play on the way’ through connecting our tamariki voice to be our innovators and decision making is fundamental to the success of our commitments and actions in providing quality tamariki and rangatahi centred-led tākaro experiences	The journey by working better together will provide access to quality tākaro experiences through shoulder-to-shoulder māhi with our communities and neighbourhoods. Ensuring our people and whānau are at the heart of tākaro for any decision making. Through this journey we will establish and share the aligning narrative that will see a higher level of awareness, knowledge and understanding of tākaro enabling intergenerational whānau tākaro	Greater degree of cross team interaction through tākaro. Supporting, advocating, and promoting tākaro journeys that will assist with educating the widest range of people about the power of tākaro. Working with our people to explore ways in which tākaro education can be amplified, translating research into tangible actions and programmes